

Art of World Sports 2016 Opening Ceremony

Rosaryhill School (Secondary Section) was invited to join the opening ceremony of Art of World Sports 2016 organised by the Art of Olympians (AOTO) at Landmark North on 13th July, 2016. AOTO is an organization and program involving Olympian and Paralympian artists to promote the Olympic ideals through exhibitions and educational programs. Rosaryhill School was the first station for Olympian artist to visit in Hong Kong. The Olympian artist, Mr. Roald Bradstock (The executive director of AOTO) was invited to visit us on 27 June. In this event, our Sportsboy of the Year 5A Joseph Tse, 3B Lammie Laing and 5C Jason Kong represent Rosaryhill School to meet the Olympian artist Mr. Kader Klouchi and Mr. Neil Eckersley. We thank you AOTO for providing this chance to our students, sharing the Olympian artist's creative ideas and passion of sports.
